Words from the Prez

Happy 2026! The year of the Fire Horse.

The Horse represents energy and forward movement, encouraging bold decisions and personal growth.

This new year I would like to ask that you look towards your bird's future. Make plans for him/her in the event that you can no longer care for them. This is so very important for you and them.

If you plan on having a family member inherit your pet, remind them, educate them and make a plan to help support them. If you plan on leaving your Feathered Friend to a rescue or sanctuary, call them and discuss what that looks like. Give the rescue a heads up so they are aware and prepared for your pet and of course discuss monetary support.

Rescues are overwhelmed with the pets, presents and hoarding situations. Many will welcome your loved ones; they just want to be prepared.

Making decisions for your future is important. These are all very tough conversations to have with family, friends and ourselves. But we have to be prepared for our futures. See Page 5 for an upcoming seminar on estate planning for your pets.

This year is the best year to make a change and do things you have always wanted to do! See new places, make that move, buy that car!! Spoil your birds, give them all the wood to chew, maybe a new cage or a different diet. Do what makes you happy! My happiness is my growing family and sharing my home with my birds.

Thank you for being a part of this great bird community!

Happy New Year.

Bird Toy Workshop

Let's start the New Year sharing holiday stories about our birds and assembling some fun toys for our and rescue birds.

Bird toy parts and foraging items are available and ready for assembly. Everyone is encouraged to bring additional items for making bird toys or to refresh some existing toys you may already have.

Join us for some bird-toy making fun. Members, guests, and birds are always welcome. Tell a friend.

Date: Sunday, January 19, 2026

Time: 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Location: Parrot Pantry

2325 San Pedro Dr. NE,
Suite 11
Albuquerque, NM 87110

Meeting Minutes

The potluck dinner was delicious. The party and white elephant gift exchange was so much fun, no club business was conducted.

Incumbent club officers all agreed to serve for another year. No other candidates were nominated.

HDBC Hotline

A few calls were received. One for a lost bird, one for a surrender, and one for an injured wild bird.

Callers were directed to either BOAF or wild bird rescue as appropriate.

HDBC Trivia

Way back in 2008, a newly-formed bird club brainstormed and voted on a name for its newsletter. Thirty-four suggested names were recorded. We know the winner, but who remembers some of the suggestions?

Here's the list of suggested names for our Birdy Bytes newsletter. Imagine the possibilities.

Beak Blurbs
Bird Alert
Bird Call
Birdhead Bugle
Bird is the Word
Bird Lips
Birds Eye View
Birdy Bulletin
Birdy Bytes

Winged Words

Birdy Bytes won with seven votes. Runner up was Read My Beak with three votes, and Featherhead News and Tweet Talk each had one vote. Gotta admit, a newsletter called "Bite Me" would be funny.

Bird Rescue, Foster, and Adoption

Birds of a Feather Parrot Rescue of New Mexico (BOAF) officially reopens the adoption process on January 15, 2026. Quite a few birds were surrendered during the adoption hiatus, especially budgies. All kinds of birds found their way to BOAF from Zebra finches to Macaws. All are looking for a new person in their life and a kind and loving home.

If you are interested in adopting, fostering, or volunteering, please complete an application posted on their website at:
